

Business Intelligence & Data Analytics Solutions

DATA-CENTRIC SERVICES AND EXPERTISE TO TAKE YOU FROM STRATEGY TO ROADMAP TO IMPLEMENTATION AND BEYOND

As a top 50 business advisory firm, Aprio offers a unique blend of data-centric services that provide the continuity, time savings and cost controls you need to maximize digital transformation initiatives. We have the experience and expertise to build, operationalize and advance your organization's BI and analytical capabilities.

Aprio delivers outcomes, not just tools

At Aprio, we look beyond tactical and technical tool implementations to focus on your desired outcomes. Our approach delivers holistic data management solutions that encompass the oversight necessary to advance BI and analytics capabilities over time. This is how we deliver quality solutions and help clients:

- Generate insights to support data monetization initiatives
- Achieve trusted data for a "Single Version of the Truth"
- Scale capabilities to support changing business objectives and models
- Advance analytics capabilities to predictive and prescriptive maturity

All the data-centric disciplines you need under one roof

Modern BI programs must be forged from a broad spectrum of data disciplines and perspectives beyond BI and analytics. Aprio is one of the few providers that offers comprehensive data-centric disciplines under one roof. This is how we deliver complete solutions that advance the maturity of your BI and Analytics capabilities.

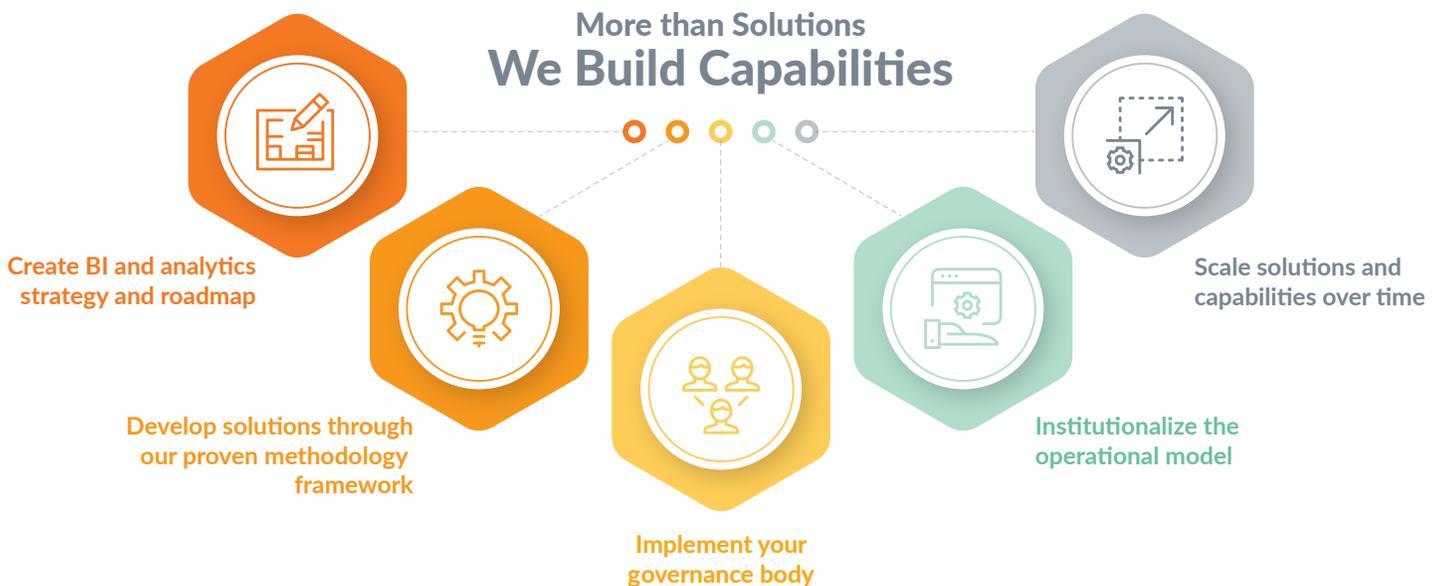

100+ years of combining Business Intelligence & Analytics leadership-level experience.

Today, businesses in every sector are moving to the cloud to advance enterprise reporting and analytics. If your digital transformation objectives are being compromised by poor data quality, unscalable legacy systems and an unfocused business intelligence (BI) and analytics strategy, Aprio can help.

Aprio builds more than solutions – we build capabilities

Successful BI and data initiatives require close collaboration across business and IT functions and new skills. Aprio's approach focuses on helping your organization build the muscle and capabilities needed to effect organizational change. Aprio can guide your program across the project lifecycle and beyond:
