Meet Jeff Kramer, Aprio Team Lead, Secureworks Partner Advisory Council Member

Jeff Kramer is Executive Vice President of Aprio's Digital Transformation and Cybersecurity Advisory Services group. Jeff brings a unique blend of knowledge and experience in business development, digital enablement and technology to his work with clients. Having held chief information security officer (CISO) positions in Fortune 500 companies, Jeff has deep expertise in business leadership, digital technology and risk management at the highest level, which he uses to help companies handle the ever-changing world of security.

Moreover, Jeff has an extensive military career and served in the United States Marine Corps for five years providing vast technical and data programming support. A recognized security expert and thought leader, Jeff also has rich knowledge of regulatory compliance and cybersecurity standards, two significant issues modern-day companies face every day. He has held many professional certifications over the course of his career, including the CCIE, CRISC, CISSP, CSSLP, CIPP and CGEIT certifications.
