

Plan Roles and Responsibilities

Aprio provides guidance on your plan and coordinates with all of your other service providers to build the necessary processes and procedures to assist you in minimizing fiduciary risk and personal liability.

These are general roles and meant for discussion purposes only. Not all roles are performed by every service provider. Please see the specific service provider's written contract for exact services offered.

