

CPA-grade business consulting services

OUR FACT-BASED DECISION SUPPORT AND RISK MANAGEMENT APPROACH DELIVERS CONFIDENCE

The greatest challenge organizations face on the road to growth and profitability is identifying the facts that enable executives to make good decisions and manage risk. The Advisory Services of Aprio bring a fact-based approach to management consulting that has evolved from the rigor and integrity of our CPA heritage.

Whether you are conducting due diligence on the purchase or sale of a business, securing critical information, resolving a dispute, optimizing operational performance or vetting a major technology investment, Aprio can provide you with the facts and recommendations that can guide you to a successful outcome.

Information Assurance Services

Safeguard your business from information risks. Our Information Assurance Services identify and address information risks through mitigation, transference or avoidance. Our services include: security and resiliency management, PCI compliance, HIPAA compliance, SSAE16/SOC2 reporting and data management and governance.

Transaction Advisory Services

Make better informed buy and sell decisions that support your strategic objectives. Our Transaction Advisory Services focus on financial, tax and IT matters and go well beyond routine due diligence to provide an independent perspective on transactions that identify "deal breaker" issues and opportunities that minimize risk and maximize transaction value.

Business Valuation Services

Drive winning outcomes in transactions, disputes, financial reporting and tax reporting. Our team has been recognized nationally by their peers for excellence in rigor and adherence to professional standards. Our professionals have extensive experience appraising and advising clients on successfully buying and selling securities, derivatives and intellectual property.

Analytics

In the information age, companies suffer from data overload. Our advisors help them sort through their data to understand what strategic information lies within. We show clients where they lead or lag versus their industry peers and how to improve their businesses. With our help, clients are empowered to use data to make informed decisions that manage business risk and innovate without fear.

Financial Consulting Services

Stakeholder demands and regulatory changes place the finance function of businesses under constant pressure to perform, adapt and improve. Leveraging our deep experience in technical accounting, financial controls, reporting and emerging standards, we provide integrated financial consulting solutions that help increase revenue, reduce cost and mitigate risk.

Litigation Support and Forensic Accounting Services

Resolve disputes faster. Our CPAs, fraud examiners, master financial forensics analysts and business valuation experts have decades of experience providing depositions and testimony in federal and state courts, arbitration, mediation and regulatory proceedings, including insurance appraisal forums. Our professionals have extensive experience conducting internal investigations, forensic accounting analysis, interviews and reporting their findings to boards, counsel and law enforcement.
